Fun Ride Write Up

Jamie Smith reported on the Liberty Lake Ride June 8. Just three people showed up to complete the 10-mile ride up to the cabin. It was a lovely ride and did not get rained on! It was forecasted for thunderstorms too. Stan and Jamie Smith and Kay Hansen made the effort.

New RV Park now open at Kootenai Country Fairgrounds

Open April 1 through November 1. Reservations available through their web site www.kcfairgrounds.com

Campground includes full hookups and pull through spaces. Questions on livestock stalling in corrals or stalls. Questions on that can be directed to KC Fairgrounds at 208-765-4969.

There is no WIFI at the RV park but there is a dump station nearby.

RV park entrance is at 482 E. Dalton Ave., between Government Way and 4th Street. No bathrooms, only a portable outhouse available at this time.

The Fairgrounds features 82 acres of green space, barns and event space.

There are 26 sites available at $40 per night.

During the week of the fair (August 21-26, 2019) spots are available at a minimum stay of six nights or $240.

Camping spot includes space for one RV, one vehicle and one tent. Maximum stay is two weeks.

RV Park allows for leashed dogs and other domestic pets. No horses allowed in RV park. Stalling is available nearby for $10 per night.

A local group of horse riders recently helped prevent a fire near Chilco Mountain — and wants to warn hikers. While preparing to clear the trail that leads up to Chilco North, members of the Panhandle Back Country Horsemen came upon a rock fire pit full of smoldering logs and coals. Strong wind threatened to blow sparks beyond the pit, into the surrounding brush and trees. The group used its drinking water to help put out the fire. Panhandle Back Country Horsemen President Karen Kimball sent this photo to The Press as a warning for hikers. She warned hikers not to put large logs on a fire and leave them burning. “It would be a disaster to have a forest fire on that majestic trail,” Kimball wrote.

English Point Recreation Area comment period due July 14

Please check out the proposed work at this popular US Forest Service trailhead east on Lancaster Rd.

Go to www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=56148

. On the right hand side “Get Connected”, click “comment on project” to submit your comments.

The proposal meets criteria under the Healthy Forests Restoration Act of 2003 Insect and disease infestation and under 36 CFR 220.6 (d) (4) Repair and maintenance of roads, trails and boundaries.

Clearing of brush and trees has begun on the west side of the trail system.

Please comment before the deadline of July 14.
